Byron Yoga Centre is one of the world's leading yoga teacher training academies and one of the longest running yoga schools in Australia, established in 1988.

The CERTIFICATE IV in YOGA TEACHING is one of the highest possible qualifications in yoga teaching, recognised both in Australia and internationally.

The DIPLOMA of PURNA YOGA MANAGEMENT is the ultimate yoga teaching certification and it also includes training in Ayurveda and in small business management.

PURNA YOGA - MAKING YOGA COMPLETE

The yoga taught at Byron Yoga Centre is called Purna, meaning integrated or complete. Purna Yoga represents a holistic approach to yoga integrating the all 8 limbs (Ashtanga), not just the asanas (physical postures) but also philosophy, meditation, pranayama (breath control) and the yogic personal and social code of ethics. The postural instruction is alignment focused. Sequences range from gentle restorative to dynamic. Blocks, belts and bolsters are available to be used to support and modify postures safely.

Our emphasis is on teaching trainees how to teach as safely and as correctly as possible, as well as providing a good balance between theory and practical.

This is Purna Yoga, an integration of all aspects of yoga.

Byron Yoga Centre, established in 1988, is now based at Byron Yoga Retreat Centre. The vibrant yoga hub hosts a range of residential retreats and teacher trainings. Each week there are 8, 5 and 3 day retreat options and every month there is a Level 1 teacher training and at least one speciality training such as Yin or Pre-natal Yoga. The non-residential courses for international students are primarily run from the studio in Byron Bay town - not at the retreat centre. Plus there is the Melbourne venue. Both these studios are close to cafes, shops and restaurants. Their central location also assists in making the public yoga classes popular, and these are taught by the teacher trainees as their practical teaching experience.

Byron Yoga Retreat Centre is a centre of excellence in delivering yoga teacher training. Byron Yoga Centre teachers inspire a spiritual lifestyle in others, are role models in sattvic living and are authentically motivated to improve people lives through Yoga.

At Byron Yoga Centre we value the ability to balance the physical, mental, emotional and spiritual wellness of our students and employees. We seek to provide an environment in which we can all prosper and reach our own inner harmony and contentment.

Byron Yoga Centre's vision is to promote peace by spreading yoga to every city and country in the world.

The Fitzroy area where the yoga studio is located is an inner-city suburb of Melbourne where the alternative side flourishes. Brunswick Street, Fitzroy's main drag, is getting around the city. Everyone loves Melbourne.
