University Preparation College

Our History

UPC history goes back to early 2002 when a private college was established to provide coaching to Australian students.

By early 2004, a group of academics from the University of New South Wales, University of Sydney, and University of Technology, Sydney conceived the idea of a high quality private education institute: UPC College was established. Founders of the College include Professors Brian Low, Professor Tam Tran, Dr Thuy Mai-Viet, Dr Robert West, Mr Dang Le, Mr Hiep Phan, and Mr Phuc Duong.

Why UPC?

- A chance to network with students from around the world
- Students of childcare courses are eligible for graduate work
- Accounting, Business and Management graduates are eligible for Post-graduate Work Experience after completing their university studies
- Our teachers and trainers are qualified and undergo regular update of skills to keep up with new ideas and techniques
- Our childcare faculty has playgroup facilities where students can interact with children and gain experience.

Welcome Message

An educational qualification is one of the most valuable investments you can make in life. Although it is relatively small commitment of time in your life span, it provides you with the knowledge and discipline to cope with a career in business or a technical profession.

As a professor I have seen many students at the start of their studies and again at graduation and I have always been amazed to see the transformation that occurs over this time. Students enter college life with a combination of optimism and fear of the unknown. When I have see the students again at graduation, they have a new confidence gained from hard work and practical experience. Maturity, independence, discipline and knowledge are the greatest reward you can get from an educational qualification.

Whether business or commerce, technology or community service is your interest, University Preparation College is the right vehicle to take you there.

Brian Low (UPC Patron)
Former Pro Vice Chancellor,
University of Technology, Sydney

It is my great pleasure to introduce UPC, its background, and why UPC is such a great place for you to consider, when you are deciding your future educational needs.

Whether you are interested in doing a course which leads directly to a job, or you are planning for higher education, UPC has the right programs for you. Graduates from UPC are highly sought after, not only because employers know that they are well-trained and have great skills, but also they are equipped with additional skills and attributes that are required in workplaces.

In addition, we also offer a very supportive environment, with help in finding accommodation and work opportunities. Our staff and teachers are proactive to help you deal with this new and wonderful country.

Everybody has a unique dream of what they desire to achieve. Some may wish to master English for future success while the others want to get vocational skills or some are pursuing more academic path. UPC is a vehicle where these very different dreams can be realized.

I hope that you decide to study with us at UPC. I can confidently assure that your time spent with UPC will turn out to be some of the most rewarding and happiest moments in your life.

English Studies

English for Higher Education

15-months - CRICOS 07689B

AUD 11,900

This is a basic starting point that teaches everyday English and then English for Academic purposes, preparing students for higher education studies.

There are 5 levels of English for Higher Education:

- Level 1: Elementary
- Level 2: Pre-Intermediate
- Level 3: Intermediate
- Level 4: Upper Intermediate
- Level 5: Advanced

English for Academic Purposes

6-months - CRICOS 076368F

AUD 5,000

This is a preparation course for further study. We expect that most UPC students will complete at least 10 weeks of the English for Academic Purposes (EAP) course.

Whilst you may be academically excellent in your subject area, you will need to learn how to read, write, listen and speak in an Australian college or university environment and for everyday use while you are in Australia.

Many overseas students find that lectures, tutorials, homework, essay writing and exams are conducted in a different way from their home country.

The EAP course will increase your vocabulary and teach research and writing skills for further academic study. English for Academic Purposes (EAP) deals with English language skills necessary for pursuing college or university studies in Australia.

This course focuses on skills required in academic study such as:

- communicating information on the everyday and dealing with some abstract academic topics
- reading and understanding texts of a more academic nature & dealing with some abstraction
- making brief classroom presentations
- writing short essays and discussion texts

There are two levels: EAP 1 (Upper Intermediate) and EAP 2 (Advanced)

Preparation for IELTS

6-months - CRICOS 076372K

AUD 5,000

This course focuses on preparation for the International English Language Testing System (IELTS). We offer individual intensive IELTS preparation at UPC to meet external IELTS examination dates and entry cut offs for colleges and universities.

Preparation for IELTS focuses on the IELTS test. At this level the English focus is on reading and listening comprehension, writing and speaking at a tertiary level of study. You will learn to:

- contribute with ease to classroom interaction and discussions of an academic nature
- write notes, assignments, essays and rephrase and rework research findings
- read and understand academic texts and interpret examination questions
- make effective classroom presentations and involve colleagues in discussions
